90 Points

Dark red-ruby. Aromas of black cherry and licorice complicated by hints of leather and animal fur. Supple, juicy, slightly high-toned kirsch and spice flavors are accented by pepper and herb notes. Doesn't offer the sweetness of Patrick Landanger's 2015s but this is still a rather easygoing, fine-grained wine. Finishes with dusty tannins and a lingering note of redcurrant. (ST)
