The Virna 2018 Barolo Noi represents a blend of fruit from four separate villages in the appellation: Monforte d'Alba (San Giovanni), La Morra (Berri and Boiolo), Verduno (Castagni) and Novello (Cerviano Merli and Sottocastello di Novello). Noi, or "us" in Italian, is a little ripe and soft in places, especially on the mid-palate, with spicy contours of cured tobacco and toasted clove. There are some earthy aromas as well with iris root or even a hint of truffle.
