

Font du Vent

2018 Chateauneuf du Pape Cuvee Etienne Gonnet
Rhône Valley, France

The Wine Advocate #244 – August 2019

Score 93-95 points

Made from 110-year-old vines and aged in old demi-muids, the 2018 Chateauneuf du Pape Cuvee Etienne Gonnet features elegant notes of roses and black tea set against ripe raspberries. It's full-bodied, silky-textured and has an almost delicate feel in the mouth, then finishes long, with hints of licorice. (JC)
