

Jean-Charles Fagot

2017 Saint-Romain

Burgundy, France

January 2019

Score 88 points

The 2017 Saint-Romain offers up attractive aromas of fresh peach, pastry cream and blanched almonds, followed by a medium-bodied, elegantly textural palate built around a bright line of animating acidity, concluding with a mouthwatering finish. Fagot is the proprietor of a parcel in Saint-Romain, which he supplements with purchased fruit to produce this cuvée. (WK)
