Drew Family Wines
Pinot Noir Estate Field Selection 2015
Mendocino Ridge, California

92 Points

The 2015 Pinot Noir Estate Field Selection presents a darker, richer expression of Mendocino Ridge, yet retains the very classic Drew sense of mid-weight structure. Black cherry, lavender, spice and violet notes all open up, but it is the wine's imposing structure and firm tannins that dominate the balance today. I very much like the sense of gravitas here.
