

Domaine Mathilde et Yves Gangloff

2018 Saint-Joseph

Rhône, France

May 2020

reviewed by Josh Raynolds

Bright and energetic on the nose, displaying an array of fresh black and blue fruit and floral qualities and a building mineral element. Shows very good depth and focus on the palate, offering juicy boysenberry and cassis flavors that take a spicy turn on the back half. Finishes long, smooth and floral, with even tannins coming in late. (91-93 points)

