Domaine de la Pousse d'Or
2015 Puligny-Montrachet "Les Caillerets"
Burgundy, France

Score: 91-93, Outstanding

Vestiges of malolactic fermentation aromas are still present on the nose. Otherwise there is a lovely sense of vibrancy to the beautifully detailed and stony medium weight flavors that possess a sappy but sophisticated mouth feel, all wrapped in a lingering and balanced finish where the natural class of Puligny is in evidence. This should clean up and my predicted range offers the benefit of the doubt in this regard.
