Gruener Veltliner "Grossriedenthaler Löss" 2015

Wagram, Austria

The Wine Advocate Issue #225 – June, 2016

Score: 88 Points

Diwald's bright and citrus-colored 2015 Grüner Veltliner Grossriedenthaler Löss, the village wine of the domaine, opens with a very bright, clear and subtle, almost floral nose with ripe white-fruit and lemon aromas. Selected from rather warmer loess vineyards Goldberg, Gsang and Diebsnest and fermented in stainless steel this is an intense, aromatic, fresh and spicy flavored Veltliner with a beautiful fresh and slightly mineral finish. A delicious and finesse-full Veltliner with a clear expression of white and lemony fruit and structured by a vivacious acidity. The finish is lemony fresh, crisp and stimulatingly salty. - SR
