

Decanter

Jean-Charles Fagot

2016 Puligny-Montrachet

Burgundy, France

October 2017

Another of the highlights of the Fagot range, the Puligny villages displays aromas of yellow citrus, subtle overtones of orchard fruit and a framing of judiciously chosen new oak. On the palate, the wine is nicely concentrated, with real depth for its level and a lovely line of acidity. (90 points)

