

MARC COLIN ET FILS

VITICULTEURS A SAINT-AUBIN - CÔTE-D'OR - FRANCE

PROFILE

Founded in 1970 by Marc Colin and his wife Michele, Domaine Marc Colin now spans 15 hectares encompassing 26 appellations in Saint-Aubin, Chassagne, Puligny, and Santenay. Most of the land was inherited from past generations of the Colin and Ponavoy families; certain parcels have been in the family for more than 100 years. While the family does own prime territory in Chassagne, home base in Saint-Aubin features parcels of the very best vineyards, En Remilly and Chatenière, to name a few. Today Caroline and Damien, two children of Marc and Michele, own and run the domaine.

The Fontenotte was initially planted to Pinot Noir, but was replaced by Chardonnay, since it is more compatible with the limestone-heavy soil in this area.
