Jean-Charles Fagot

2016 Chassagne-Montrachet Rouge Vieilles Vignes
Burgundy, France

October 2017

A brooding bouquet of smoky, inky dark fruit and meaty soil tones introduces a rich, full-bodied wine with fine but firm tannins, juicy acids and a nicely concentrated core of fruit. This is normally one of Fagot's best red Burgundies, and 2016 is no exception. (90 points)
