Marsannay Es Chezots 2015

Marsannay, Burgundy

The Wine Advocate #230 – April 2017

Score 90-92 points

The 2015 Marsannay Es Chezots displayed more red than black fruit on the nose: cranberry jus, hints of pomegranate filtering through subtle, earthy aromas. The palate is well balanced with a brittle texture on the entry. There is impressive tension interwoven throughout this Marsannay, though at the moment it feels very tight and a little brisk on the saline finish. Give this a couple of years once in bottle. (NM)
