

Jean-Charles Fagot
2017 Puligny-Montrachet
Burgundy, France

January 2019

Score 90 points

From bottle, the 2017 Puligny-Montrachet confirms its promise, revealing attractive aromas of ripe citrus fruit, white flowers and a subtle touch of classy new oak. On the palate, it's medium to full-bodied, elegantly glossy and succulent, with attractive texture and a pure finish. (WK)

