Bourgogne Chapitre Vieilles Vignes 2015

Marsannay, Burgundy

The Wine Advocate #230 – April 2017

Score 90-92 points

The 2015 Bourgogne Chapitre Vieilles Vignes, which now includes a small parcel of younger vines, is one of the best generic red Burgundy wines that you can find. This does real intensity, almost brooding in quality. The palate is medium-bodied with supple, quite rounded redcurrant and cranberry notes on the entry, wonderful acidity and genuine weight and presence on the finish. Never underestimate the quality of this wine. (NM)
