

Wine Spectator

www.winespectator.com

Jean-Louis Chave

Hermitage Rouge 2011

Rhône, France

November 15, 2014

Collectibles A grippy, mouthwatering style offering solid, briary tannins inlaid with finely beaded acidity, all of which melds into the core of anise, blackberry paste and fig sauce favors. Shows terrific energy on the singed apple wood finish. Should cruise in the cellar. Best from 2016 through 2030. 2,500 cases made. -JM

