

Tenuta Scutto

2017 Fiano di Avellino

Campania, Italy

December 2018

Score 90+ points

Plump, bright and round, the 2017 Fiano di Avellino by Eduardo Scutto and his son Adolfo is a beautifully generous expression of the grape. There is more padding and softness here (compared to your standard Fiano di Avellino), and that extra dimension most certainly adds to the overall complexity and wholeness of the wine. From a hot vintage, this wine will cool and refresh your senses. The low pricing is another reason to love it. (ML)

