2015 Mendocino Ridge Field Selections Pinot Noir
California

August 2018

Score: 91 Points

This is the second release from Drew's vineyard on the coastal side of the Mendocino Ridge appellation, three miles from the sea. It smells of conifer forest, rose hips and stem spice, then tastes of crunchy fruit, red apple and cranberry, over tense, earthy tannins. A powerful young pinot noir, this needs a year or two in bottle to mellow.
