

Domaine Marc Colin

St. Aubin "Sur le Sentier du Clou" 2014

Burgundy, France

Score: 90

There is a bit more reduction present and about all that peeks through the funk are citrus hints; as such I would advise decanting this if you're going to try a bottle soon. Otherwise there is good freshness and punch to the bigger and richer medium-bodied flavors where the citrus elements suggested by the nose reappear on the balanced finale. Occasionally when information is transferred from the Issues to the database errors are created.
