

Antonio Galloni
presents vinous
explore all things wine

July 2017

Domaine Mathilde et Yves Gangloff
2015 Saint-Joseph Blanc
Saint Joseph, Northern Rhône

91 Points

Pale yellow-gold. Fresh pear, yellow plum, honey and pungent flowers on the mineral-accented nose. Juicy and taut on the palate, offering ripe orchard and citrus fruit flavors and showing a supple, seamless texture. Closes sappy and gently sweet, displaying strong mineral cut and impressive persistence. Yves Gangloff calls this wine, made from fruit grown on granitic soils, his "homage to Hermitage" and the description is apt. (JR)

