2012 Chablis- Les Fourneaux

Score: 91

2012 Chablis “Les Fourneaux”: This also displays plenty of Chablis character though it's definitely riper with green fruit, white peach, apricot and quinine nuances. There is good vibrancy to the utterly delicious medium-bodied flavors that possess fine mid-palate concentration and good depth on the palate coating finish. I like the balance and this would be a good choice for those who enjoy identifiable Chablis character in a slightly riper package. 91/2018+
