From ungrafted vines on blue slate, the 2013 Mühlheimer Sonnenlay Riesling Kabinett feinherb offers a very delicate, aromatic bouquet with a lovely precise slate perfume. Light to medium-bodied but full-flavored, the medium-dry Kabinett (9.5% alcohol plus 21 grams of residual sugar) is absolutely delicious in its purity, piquancy and salinity. If you don't need flesh on your tongue, but esprit, this Kabinett is the one you need. A Best Buy!
