Maison Samuel Billaud
2016 Chablis 1er Cru “Séchet”
Burgundy, France

Score: 91

Initially there is enough reduction to notice but aggressive swirling eventually reveals a ripe but restrained nose that is comprised by the pure essence of pear, apple, iodine and lemon rind. The supple but highly energetic flavors possess a sleek mouth feel and ample minerality that really emerges on the clean, focused and attractively dry finish. Good stuff and worth a look.
