Maison Samuel Billaud
2017 Chablis “Séchet”
Burgundy, France

Score: 90-93

(from a .60 ha holding). This too offers good Chablis character to the aromas of sea shore, algae, lemon rind and a whiff of iodine that is picked up by the intense and beautifully delineated middle weight flavors that flash equally good minerality on the bone dry finish. This won't wow you with its finesse but it is very good and clearly built to reward mid-term keeping.
