

Antonio Galloni
presents
vinous
explore all things wine

June, 2015

---

Domaine Jean Macle
Château-Chalon 2007
Jura, France

Score: 93+

Pungent aromas of peat, smoked almond and sea breeze, plus a whiff of wild herbs. Rich and intense on the palate, this this nonetheless tender Vin Jaune shows depth, spice and finesse. More about elegance than sheer weight. Macle says it should be allowed to mature for another five or six years in bottle before being consumed, but not many consumers will be prepared to wait. – JP