

Antonio Galloni
presents vinous
explore all things wine

January 2019

Domaine de la Pousse d'Or 2017 Corton Clos du Roi Grand Cru Burgundy, France

91-93 Points

The 2017 Corton Clos du Roi Grand Cru has a seductive, floral nose that is more Côte de Nuits than Beaune, with copious red cherries, raspberry and rose petal aromas. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannin, the oak a little more pronounced than the Corton-Bressandes but that will integrate during the remainder of the barrel maturation and there is a welcome white pepper/red peppercorn sensation that pops up on the aftertaste. Very promising. (NM)

