

Vignobles Laffourcade

Château Perray Jouannet Cabernet Franc 2011

Anjou, Loire Valley, France

September, 2016

Score: 87 points

Now mature and ready to drink, this is a ripe, smooth wine. It has soft tannins and a rounded texture with spice and secondary undergrowth flavors. The wine, from an estate owned by the bishops of Angers before the French Revolution, needs no more aging. –RV
