

Domaine Mathilde et Yves Gangloff

2017 Condrieu

Rhône, France

May 2020

reviewed by Josh Raynolds

Glistening straw. Powerful aromas of ripe citrus and orchard fruits are complemented by building mineral and floral overtones. Sappy and expansive on the palate, offering pear nectar, white peach, tangerine and candied ginger flavors and a touch of honeysuckle. In a hefty style but quite energetic as well, displaying strong closing cut, excellent tenacity and repeating florality. (94 points)

