Domaine de la Pousse d'Or
Volnay "Clos d'Audignac" 2014
Burgundy, France

Score: 91

This is aromatically much earthier and notably less spicy though there is a lovely layering to the restrained nose of various dark berries, plum and tea scents. There is both fine volume and intensity to the beautifully detailed and stony medium weight and tautly muscular flavors that deliver excellent depth and length. This powerful effort should amply reward up to a decade of cellar time.
