Score: 90-92 Points

The 2013 Pinot Noir Sanford & Benedict is loaded with potential. Vibrant purple in color, with gorgeous violet, spring flowers, sappy underbrush and plum and darker berry-styled fruits, it's juicy and fresh on the palate, with outstanding purity and concentration. Coming all from the older vines in the top-notch Sanford & Benedict Vineyard, it was fermented with roughly 25% whole clusters and will spend 9 months in 2-year-old barrels. It too should be an outstanding bottle of wine and have a solid 7-8 years or more of positive evolution. – JD
