

Domaine Mathilde et Yves Gangloff

2018 Condrieu

Rhône, France

May 2020

reviewed by Josh Raynolds

Pale gold. Intense, mineral-accented scents of fresh pear, nectarine and violet are lifted by a bright citrus pith nuance. Silky and tightly focused on entry, then deeper in the midpalate, offering sappy orchard and pit fruit and Meyer lemon flavors and a hint of honeysuckle. Closes with impressive, mineral-tinged persistence, repeating florality and a repeating pear note. (94-95 points)

