

Domaine Mathilde et Yves Gangloff

2019 Saint-Joseph

Rhône, France

May 2020

reviewed by Josh Raynolds

Lively, mineral- and spice-accented cherry, blackberry and violet qualities on the incisive nose. Juicy and energetic on the palate, offering bitter cherry, dark berry and olive flavors that take on a black pepper nuance in the midpalate. Closes very long and precise, with a building mineral quality and rounded, well-knit tannins that add gentle grip. (91-93 points)

