

Antonio Galloni
presents vinous
explore all things wine

July 2017

J.L. Chave Sélection
Saint-Joseph “Offerus” 2014
Rhône Valley, France

91 Points

Deep ruby. Powerful aromas of blackberry, candied violet and woodsmoke, plus a hint of olive that emerges with aeration. Sweet, densely packed and seamless in texture, offering juicy black and blue fruit and licorice flavors given lift and spine by a core of juicy acidity. Spreads out and becomes spicier on the long, sweet finish, which features subtle tannins and a sexy floral nuance. – JR