Canon Fronsac 2010

Bordeaux France

October, 2014

Score: 88 Points

There's nothing somber or weighty about this fresh, bright, merlot-based blend. It's saturated with cassis and cherry flavor, coming up against black tannins in the end. Those tannins are dry and peppery, but there's plenty of fruit richness to sustain the wine as it ages. It grows at a 45-acre vineyard three miles northwest of Libourne.
