

Domaine Mathilde et Yves Gangloff

2019 Condrieu

Rhône, France

May 2020

reviewed by Josh Raynolds

Light, green-tinged yellow. A powerful scented bouquet evokes violet, ripe citrus and orchard fruits, which are complicated by hints of dusty minerals and saffron. Juicy and concentrated on the palate, offering densely packed pear nectar, orange pith and honeysuckle flavors that show outstanding clarity and mineral lift. The floral and mineral notes persist on the incisive finish, which hangs on with superb tenacity. (95-96 points)

