Grüner Veltliner Grossriedenthaler Löss 2016

Wagram, Austria

89 Points

Lentil and fresh spinach in the nose pick up attractive lettuce-like crunch and stimulating piquancy when they migrate to the polished palate. Yet there is also an attractive underlying hint of textural creaminess, no doubt in part a function of certain lots having undergone malo-lactic transformation in acacia cask. White pepper and fresh lime add incisive invigoration and animating brightness to the clear, refreshingly lingering finish. (DS)
