

January 2017

Domaine de la Pousse d'Or
Chambolle-Musigny Les Charmes 1er Cru 2015
Burgundy, France

90-93 Points

Bright medium ruby. Much sexier and more expressive on the nose than the Chambolle villages, offering high-pitched scents of blackberry, violet and bitter chocolate. Not a particularly fleshy wine but offers noteworthy mineral verve to its blackberry and violet flavors and has more material to support its dusty tannins. Considerably deeper, longer and more complex than the basic village offering, with solid mineral-driven acidity giving it very good balance. (ST)

