Rating: 90–92

The 2013 Côtes de Nuits Villages les Croix Violettes comes from vines planted in 1937 and 1946 cropped between 25 to 30 hectoliters per hectare due to a lot of millerandage. It has a very well-defined bouquet with blackberry and raspberry fruit, but that mineralité really comes through. The palate is medium-bodied with a sense of symmetry: very tense, almost spicy on the finish, a wine that is full of nascent energy. Is this the best Côtes de Nuits Villages? Quite probably. Drink 2017-2028
