2018 Pinot Noir Estate - Field Selections

Mendocino Ridge, California

April 2020

95 Points

The 2018 Pinot Noir Estate - Field Selections is the most complete of the Pinots in this range. Readers will find a wine that melds together the gracious, lift feel that is typical of the Drew Pinot with layers of dimension that reveal themselves with time in the glass. Airy blue purplish fruit, hard candy, mint and wild flowers all come together effortlessly in this super-expressive and inviting Pinot. (AG)
