Marsannay "Cuvée Saint-Urbain" Blanc 2015

Marsannay, Burgundy

The Wine Advocate #230 – April 2017

Score 90 points

Bottled ten days before my visit, the 2015 Marsannay "Cuvée Saint-Urbain" Blanc has an edgy nose with subtle scents of white peach, orange blossom and lanolin that is well defined and gains intensity in the glass. The palate is well balanced with a crisp line of acidity, harmonious and precise with a touch of nutmeg and spice box towards the finish. This is a fine and delicious white Marsannay. (NM)
