Maison Vevey Albert
Blanc de Morgex et de La Salle 2016
Vallée d'Aoste, Italy

90 Points

Luminous pale straw-green. Fragrant lemon verbena and jasmine notes complement aromas of green apple and yellow apple. Fresh, juicy and nicely flavored; the silky texture is firmed by harmonious acidity and salinity. Elements of iodine and mint emerge along with hints of chlorophyll on the long finish. A very pretty, floral wine.

Founded in 1968 by Albert Vevey (the first president of the Associazione Viticoltori de Morgex) and run today by sons Mirko and Mario Vevey, this is one of the few estates making Blanc de Morgex et La Salle wines (most of this denomination's production is bottled by the extremely fine cooperative Cave du Mont Blanc). The small family-run Albert Vevey estate (only 1.5 hectares) has always been a real quality leader in the region...The best and simplest thing I can say about this estate is that just about any wine you pick from Albert Vevey virtually guarantees quality in your glass.
