Tasted blind at the Burgfest annual tasting, the 2014 Chablis 1er Cru Séchet has a much more reserved bouquet than its peers served in this flight, yet there is outstanding definition and precision here, real mineralité and terroir expression. The palate is well balanced with touches of fresh lime and grapefruit on the entry. The acidity was very well judged and boasts a lip-smacking salinity on the persistent finish. This is a superb Chablis from Samuel Billaud. (NM)
