

Domaine Mathilde et Yves Gangloff

2019 Saint-Joseph Blanc

Rhône, France

May 2020

reviewed by Josh Raynolds

Limpid straw color. Meyer lemon, pear, pungent flowers and a gingery nuance on the perfumed, mineral-accented nose. Honeysuckle flavors, penetrating orchard and citrus fruit show impressive depth as well as energy and fine delineation. Becomes deeper with air and finishes broad and long, with building spiciness and a bracing jolt of smoky minerality. (93-94 points)

