

Antonio Galloni
presents
vinous
explore all things wine

March 2016

---

Domaine J.L. Chave
Saint-Joseph 2013
Rhône Valley, France

93 Points

Deep ruby. Vibrant, sharply focused aromas of fresh dark berries, potpourri and licorice along with a smoky mineral overtone. Juicy and vibrant on the palate, offering concentrated boysenberry and bitter cherry flavors that become sweeter and spicier with air. Fine-grained tannins give shape to the impressively long, mineral-driven finish, which leaves behind sexy floral pastille and spicecake notes. (JR)