

Pousse d'Or

Pommard 1er Cru Jarollieres

Cote de Beaune, Burgundy, France

The Wine Advocate Issue #222 – December, 2015

Score: 88-90 Points

The 2014 Pommard 1er Cru Jarollières contains 30% of vines planted in 1925, the most recent in 1990. It has a very dense nose: a wall of black fruit that does not let you past to feel the terroir, at the moment. The palate is structured with a firm backbone, grainy tannin and layers of blackberry infused with cold stone; this leads to a linear and correct finish that is not in the mood for playing around. Give it 3-5 years and make sure you like Pommard, though personally, I have a ken for the domaine's Volnays. - NM
