

The Ultimate Burgundy Reference

Issue 62

April 15, 2016

---

Domaine de la Pousse d'Or Grand Cru Bonnes-Mares

2014

Burgundy, France

Score: 95

Notably ripe but brooding and somber aromas of spice, raspberry liqueur, warm earth and violet struggle somewhat against the generous oak treatment. Otherwise there is excellent volume and power to the big-bodied and muscular flavors that display solid detail before terminating in an extremely firm, vibrant and quite serious finish that possesses simply stunning depth and persistence. As the description suggests this is not entirely harmonious at present but the underlying material is so good that this explosive effort should eventually be nothing short of remarkable.