

Drew Family Wines

2016 Mid-Elevation Pinot Noir (Mendocino Ridge)

June 2018

Score: 92 points

Floral, savory aromas and good, juicy red and black-cherry flavors are lifted by racy acidity and moderate tannins in this medium-bodied wine. It has a tangy lip-smacking texture, fine balance and reveals more nuances with each sip. (JG)

