This was a terrific showing by Ollieux Romanis's 2013 Corbières Boutenac Cuvee Or. A blend of 44% Carignan, 23% Grenache, 23% Mourvèdre and 10% Syrah that was brought up mostly in new barrels, it has lots of dark fruit, coffee bean, oak and licorice to go with a full-bodied, beautifully concentrated feel on the palate. While this starts out slightly monolithic and straightforward, the oak recedes with time in the glass and it gains both complexity and polish. It's a serious Boutenac that will have upwards of a decade of overall longevity. Drink 2015-2025
