2015 Volnay 1er Cru Clos de la Bousse d'Or

Score: 93 Points

An old-fashioned Volnay that's not afraid of tannins, this wine's stature speaks of long years in the cellar as you wait for those tannins to relent. The fruit is completely ripe, taking on redcherry and plum sweetness, while the tannins are velvet restraints, feeling juicy in their mineral power, rich and beautiful. This grows at a walled vineyard in Volnay owned by the domaine, most of the vines planted in the 1960s and '70s, with one-quarter of the parcel dating to 1958.
