

Wine Spectator

www.winespectator.com

Jean-Louis Chave

Hermitage White 2014

Rhône, France

October 2017

Score: 98 points

Honeysuckle, verbena and chamomile aromas stream out first, followed by a remarkably creamy core of yellow apple, white peach, heather honey and warm mirabelle plum notes. Hazelnut oil and brioche line the finish, adding considerable length. Despite all the lushness and depth, this manages to maintain a sense of tension and precision as well. An amazing wine. (JM)

