Drew Family Cellars

2015 Pinot Noir - Valenti Ranch

Mendocino Ridge, California

Score: 91, Outstanding

A ripe but agreeably airy nose combines notes of dark cherry, spice and plum scents that display a top note of violet. There is both good volume and an attractive mouth feel to the delicious, round and supple middle weight flavors that offer a seductive succulent before terminating in a complex, sneaky long and balanced finish. Lovely and fashioned in a package that could be enjoyed young or aged to good effect too.
